

“We won’t . . . alone!”

We won’t _____ & _____ alone.

Hebrews 12:13 (cf. Jas. 5:6, Gal. 6:1)

Jude 20-23

Cf. 1 Corinthians 5-6

We won’t _____ & _____ alone.

Ecclesiastes 4:9-11

Cf. the One Anothers (insert)

How our study applies to having a great small group:

“Missed when we _____”
**Making sure the _____ of life do not become the “out of joint” issues that cripple us.*

_____ to be who we really want to be!

Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their toil. For if they fall, one will lift up his fellow. But woe to him who is alone when he falls and has not another to lift him up! Again, if two lie together, they keep warm, but how can one keep warm alone? And though a man might prevail against one who is alone, two will withstand him—a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

Ecclesiastes 4:9-12 ESV

So that what is lame may not be put out of joint but rather be healed.

- Hebrews 12:13b ESV

Welcome to Trinity Fellowship

Today we conclude a four-part reflection on ReGrouping to Relationships. We’ve thought about giving up bitterness, seeking real forgiveness by seeking reconciliation, and living that out by speaking the truth in love.

Our final reflection is on doing TOGETHER what we could never accomplish alone . . . experience an environment of hope, healing, and prevailing health. And one of the best ways to experience “together” is through small groups.

This is all part of Vision 2010 - releasing a God-given revolution of relationships from the men up!

NEXT TWO WEEKS: Pastor Don Hancock teaches on “Family Man: Hero to His Children”
